SERVICE TECHNICIAN MENTALITY

If you come to work as a service tech for The McGregor Company have your coveralls on and ready to work by seven o'clock and do not be surprised if you are asked to do a project that you have never attempted before. Accept the challenge and call it a learning experience.

Be Honest and Respectful to your teammates. You will be asked to provide timely service to customers that are pulling our equipment, which makes you responsible for it's accuracy. "The Account Manager gets the job and it is the Service Tech that keeps them coming back"!

You may also be asked to provide service to customers with their own equipment, relying on you for a timely delivery. The quality of the equipment and the delivery truck you operate is a result of a year round process that is all about "attitude" and being the best provider of ag products and services in the PNW.

If you are not afraid to take on a challenge and put in an honest day's work getting greasy, oily, and dirty you will find working for The McGregor Company a rewarding experience.
